

Code Of Ethics

Members shall comply with the Alberta Building Code and the National Building Code of Canada and/or all additional recognized standards applicable to the individual member as a minimum standard for that member's services and shall work towards industry improvement.

Members shall perform their services to conform to the principles of good community development.

Members shall be fair and honest with their customers, employees, sub-contractors, and suppliers.

Members shall co-operate, interchange information and experience, and encourage research on materials and techniques in order to provide better housing at lower costs.

Members shall avoid any conduct or practice likely to discredit or do injury to our industry.

Members shall avoid advertising that tends to mislead customers, deprecate competitors, or generally bring the reputation of the industry into disrepute.

Members shall display and encourage a sense of pride in belonging to the Grande Prairie Home Builder's Association.

Members shall perform and co-operate in the completion of their services in a manner that demonstrates the utmost competence.

Members shall actively encourage fellow members to uphold the professional image and reputation of the Grande Prairie Home Builder's Association.

These responsibilities are freely and solemnly assumed and form part of an obligation as members of the Grande Prairie Home Builders' Association.
